

SCG Contributions

With a commitment to contributing to Thailand's social development, SCG has made financial contributions to foundations, charitable organizations and business associations countrywide. This is aimed to make Thai people live a better life and support the sustainable development of Thai society.

SCG remains politically neutral, and give “Zero” financial support to any political party, political group, or candidates in local, regional or national levels or person with political influence.

					Unit: MB
	Items	2013	2014	2015	2016
1.	Contributions to Foundations and Charitable Organizations for CSR and social purpose	490	507	542	671
2.	Contributions to Business and Professional Associations (incl. membership fee and sponsorship)*	35	48	48	39
3.	Contributions to Political Parties	None	None	None	None

Remarks: 5 Largest contributions to business and professional Associations are Federation of Thai Industries, The Thai Chamber of Commerce, Thai Cement Manufacturer Association, Thailand Development Research Institute and Thailand Management Association. These associations may propose recommendations to the government for consideration, however in practical; they do not have influence on political campaigns or legislation. The contributions made from SCG is relatively insignificant to overall revenues of those organizations and associations.*